CROSS-ROADS

We have for acknowledgment your letter of June 8, also the receipt of the folders and 'Guide to Honolulu,' which we will take pleasure in distrib-nting among the hotels and to our pasgers. A copy of the 'Crossroads of Pacific' has been received here, and we could use a dozen or more copies, if you have them to spare. Any literature descriptive of Honolulu and the Hawaiian Islands which you may send us from time to time will be dis-tributed to good advantage in Ma-nila."

We will forward the maps desired By the Siberia, on Monday, and by the same steamer will send out over one fundred other copies, covering Japan, China, India, Ceylon and the Straits Settlements.

We are in receipt of a cablegram from Mr. Loyd Childs, stating that his report on Seattle as a field for promotion work will arrive by the Siberia. Thus far, although local papers gave due publicity to the announcement that Promotion Committee offered a prize of $50 for the best poster adver rising the 1909 Floral Parade, no dehave been submitted. Having spent a winter in your beautiful country, I am trying my best to get a number of Klondike friends to take a trip to Hanolulu next winter, and if they do, I am sure they would be more than pleased. A large number of our people here spend their winters in Southern California, but I am sure that if they knew what advantages the Hawaiian climate has over the Californian you would see numbers of them in Homolulu every winter.
